There's no expensive paid ads, no forever blogging your reviews, pleading vendors for review copies or the need to spend every waking hour living in front of your computer.

My entrepreneur friend and I (I'll call him Mister X for now) are offering you access to our "Special List Building System" at a discounted Pre-launch price.

We will show you how to build an email list of voracious buyers that devour everything you put in front of them (Imagine a pack of rottweilers that haven't been fed for a week)

You will accelerate your affiliate business by offering our most popular "High Ticket" and "High Converting" products on the planet and never have to deal with $7 and $27 pdf products again.

...And as you're a valued customer who has bought from me before, this is a special deal that is only available to you during the pre-launch. So...
